

FORBES OF KINGENNIE
COUNTRY RESORT

Venue Terms and Conditions

- Forbes of Kingennie will not be held responsible for any damage or loss of any personal property on our premises before, during or after the event.
- Please note that you shall be required to pay for any loss or damage to any part of the resort premises, or to any fixtures, fittings and equipment which are caused by the hirer or guests.
- We will not be held responsible for damage to any article brought onto the grounds or into the premises.
- Forbes of Kingennie will not be held responsible for the setup, use of, or removal of items hired from third parties, for example Chair Covers and Flower Arrangements.
- If you are looking to hire large items of equipment from suppliers, e.g. photo booth, sweetie cart, then please check with the resort before booking these additional items may not be feasible to place in the room.
- All items supplied for events must be collected from the resort by 11am the morning after the wedding. If these items are not removed by this time, then Forbes of Kingennie has the right to dispose of them.
- We ask that parents and guardians supervise their children at all times due to areas of deep water around the resort.
- We do not allow any guest to bring alcohol onto the premises or for any of them to consume alcohol in the car park areas and resort grounds. Please make your guests aware of this policy, and should any of them be caught breaching this policy, they will be asked to leave the resort.
- A noise limiter is in place in our Inglesmaldie Suite. Both bands and DJ's have to operate within this limit. All doors, windows and curtains in both rooms will be kept closed after 8pm.
- All events at Forbes of Kingennie will finish no later than midnight.
- Forbes of Kingennie reserve the right to use images from your event for advertisement of the venue.
